

My prayer

“Heavenly Father, considering my relationship with you, with my church family and your command to go and make disciples - how do you want me to respond in this situation?”